

British Neurosurgical Trainee Course

Oncology and Skull Base

Monday 8th January – Wednesday 10th January 2018
Robinson College, University of Cambridge

A 3-day residential course directed at the core neurosurgical syllabus for British Neurosurgical Trainees. Designed to cover the entire syllabus over 5 courses run at 6 monthly intervals

British Faculty • Dovetails with Ebrain (<http://www.ebrainjnc.com>)

Course Registration

Residential candidates £450 • Non-residential candidates £250

Course Topics

Biology and Basic Science of Tumours • Neuropathology and WHO classification •
Imaging and Pre-operative Planning • Principles of Adjuvant Therapy •
Cortical and White Matter 3D Anatomy • Intrinsic Intracranial Tumours •
Awake craniotomy • Pineal Region Tumours • Anterior and Middle Fossa 3D Anatomy •
Meningioma • Operative Approaches for Anterior and Middle Cranial Fossa •
Transphenoidal Approaches • Pituitary Tumours & Endocrinology •
Ventricular Tumours and Operative Aspects • Posterior Fossa 3D Anatomy & Operative Approaches • Acoustic Neuromas & Otological Aspects Skull Base Surgery •
Paediatric Tumours • Radiosurgery

Course Convenors

Peter Hutchinson, Professor of Neurosurgery

Ramez Kirollos, Consultant Neurosurgeon

Simon Thomson, Consultant Neurosurgeon

Adel Helmy, Consultant Neurosurgeon

Contact

tt294@cam.ac.uk or dgb36@cam.ac.uk

ON-LINE REGISTRATION