

Endoscopy in Neurosurgery

The one-day beginners' course

Saturday 2nd December 2017
London

Introduction

Endoscopy in Neurosurgery presents the introductory one-day course to neuro-endoscopy aimed at those with little or no endoscopic experience to complement our 3-day advanced course. The aim is to allow delegates to gain the necessary basic knowledge and practical experience required at the start of neuro-endoscopy training.

The course will consist of lectures, video sessions, simulation and cadaveric work.
