

EANS Research Course

6 April 2017 – Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Venue: De Bazel, Vijzelstraat 32, Amsterdam

THE EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION
OF NEUROSURGICAL SOCIETIES

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

Block 1 – Introduction to Neurosurgical Research

11.00 Introduction to the Research Course – Radoslaw Rola (Poland)

11.05 Lecture Introduction to Neurosurgical Research – Jan Willem Berkelbach van der Sprenkel (The Netherlands)

Block 2 – How to Finance Your Research

11.25 Lecture How to Get Funds – Lorenzo Bello (Italy)

Block 3 – Research Question

11.50 Lecture The Importance of the Research Question – Jeroen Boogarts (The Netherlands)

12.10 Workshop 1 Critical Review of a Paper/Trial – Mikka Korja (Finland), Lorenzo Bello (Italy)

Attendees will perform a critical review of a given paper following the guidelines presented.

~ 13.10-13.40 Lunch ~

13.40 Workshop 2 How to Define a Hypothesis – Angelos Koliass (UK), Guy Rosenthal (Israel)

Attendees will define their research question and describe a hypothesis related to their own research proposal.

Block 4 – How to Write a Project

14.40 Workshop 3 How to Write a Project – Radoslaw Rola (Poland)/Jan Willem Berkelbach van der Sprenkel (The Netherlands)

Attendees will draft a research project of their own or related to the topic presented

~ 15.40-15.50 ~ Break

15.50 Presentations by the shortlisted 2017 Aesculap EANS Research Prize candidates

Block 5 – How to Present the Study

16.50 Lecture How Do I Submit a Paper – Guy Rosenthal (Israel)

17.10 Lecture Why Was My Manuscript Rejected? – André Grotenhuis (The Netherlands)

~ 17.30-17.40 ~ Break

17.40 Workshop 4 How to Make an Oral Presentation – Florian Ringel (Germany)

Two attendees will deliver an oral presentation (their own or one related to a proposed theme) and all will hold a discussion

18.40 Course closes